MRS. LONGWORTH AND CIGARETTES.

There is an old story of a man who rode all day in a car on a Georgia railway, the only other occupant being a lady. There was no smoking room in the car; it was winter and too cold to stand outside to smoke, and so the poor man suffered all day for a smoke. About 5 p. m. the car stopped for dinner, or supper, at a wayside station. The meal was not an attractive one, being mostly bacon, corn bread, beans, and black coffee. Returning to the car, the desire to smoke finally so overmastered the man that he approached the lady and said: "I beg your pardon, madam, but would it greatly discommode you were I to smoke a cigar? The answer was assuring, as follows: "Not a d—d bit, stranger; I chaw myself."

When the wires brought news of the petitions being showered upon Mrs. Longworth, by her sister women, begging her to give up cigarettes, the first thought was that they all ought to take railroad journeys in Georgia in the winter. That obtuse provincialism of the east makes one weary. We wish that Mrs. Longworth had replied: "I have given up cigarettes; I smoke nothing but a cob pipe now! Mrs. Longworth is a private citizeness now. Whatever she does that is not unlawful does not happen to be any business of her sister women. Under the constitution of the United States she has a right to do any legitimate thing. Under the declaration of independence she has certain inalienable rights among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Her father is no longer president; her husband is not so conspicuous in congress as to cause all eyes to be turned upon him all the time, and moreover, she is an American woman and has a right to do anything within the laws that she pleases to.—Goodwin's Weekly.

COL. YOUNG WILL SOON SMASH THE ICE TRUST

Colonel Carl Young, particularly prominent heretofore in Nevada politics, will probably not appear on this scene this year for reports come from Los Angeles that the erstwhile mining man and politician is about, through an invention, to attempt to do away with the necessity of using ice in refrigerators. An iceless refrigerator is the thing that Young and his associates have undertaken to put in "every home in the land." They guarantee that the icemen will soon be far fewer in number.

The Los Angeles Times, in part, makes the following reference to the invention:

"The invention is the invention of Carl J. Young, a Los Angeles man, and is a modification of the old California oil. It is constructed out of a patented material similar to that used in the oil, and works on the same principle. Instead of putting ice inside, all that is necessary to keep the temperature down is to throw a generous supply of water over the box once a day. Is the claim of the inventor.

According to Thomas W. Wampler the president and general manager of the company, experiments have demonstrated that the temperature of the interior of the refrigerator never rises above 60 degrees, even when the box is standing in the sun, and at night will fall as low as 48 degrees.

"We have demonstrated that butter will keep ten days and still be as nice as when placed in the refrigerator," said Wampler last night. "We also experimented with whipped cream, and found it would keep four days. Other provisions will keep as long or longer than in an icebox, because the temperature is almost uniform.

"The refrigerator will sell at about the same figure as first class ice boxes, but, according to Wampler, that ends the expense. The refrigerators are asserted to be absolutely sanitary in every respect."

CHANCE TO SECURE A GOOD DICTIONARY

We would like to call the attention of our readers to a splendid offer that the Success company is making through its agent, A. J. Baker, a student of the University of California.

He is offering with the Success magazine for three years an up to date dictionary. Webster's Intercollegiate. The publishers have succeeded in gathering into a handy-sized book whose scope satisfies the users of high priced, unabridged dictionaries. This has been done by a new system of paragraphing and typing and by using a very fine grade of paper. Although it has 1224 full sized pages, it weighs but two pounds and is less than two inches in thickness. It has a morocco ledger binding, thumb index and is illustrated with colored plates. With possibly one exception it is the only dictionary that has been built anew in nineteen years. It contains the latest coined words.

Mr. Baker is seeking to get 1000 subscriptions before he returns to college. He has so far gotten 880 and expects to get the rest in Tonopah. The company is offering special inducements to reach that mark. Anyone desiring to get a good dictionary or magazine can get in touch with Mr. Baker by leaving a notice at the Bonanza office.

"How can you go around," demanded his wife, "with tobacco juice all over your face?" "This isn't tobacco juice," responded the candidate mildly, "it's molasses. I've been kissing babies."—Washington Herald.

STATE UNIVERSITY OPENS AT RENO

ATTENDANCE ABOUT SAME AS LAST YEAR ACCORDING TO ESTIMATE OF REGENT.

The state university at Reno opened the fall term yesterday, which is about two weeks earlier than usual, and it will close two weeks earlier than usual next May.

"The attendance this year will be about the same as last," when there were about 300 students. Six courses are studied, including agriculture, mechanical engineering, mining, civil engineering, liberal arts and general science, which can be followed by the normal course. The next meeting of the regents will be held in Reno Saturday, August 20. Regent Fred Williams of Goodsprings, who is temporarily residing in Goldfield, will go to Reno to attend the meeting.

MACHINERY ARRIVES FOR MARBLE QUARRIES

RENO, August 16.—A carload of machinery, purchased by Superintendent George S. Hall of the Nevada Marble company, passed through Reno Saturday en route to the quarry, which is situated near Luning. The consignment consisted of boiler, hoist, derrick, drilling machinery and a quantity of tools.

As soon as the machinery is installed men at work at the quarry will be increased. Recent work has shown the marble deposit to be much more extensive than was at first believed. It is literally a mountain of marble of many varieties, all choice.

The Nevada Marble company has decided to practically donate $6000 worth of Marble to the Y. M. C. A.

JEFFRIES AFTER BIG GAME.

Former Champion Jim Jeffries and party are scheduled to arrive in Big Pine about August 15th or later. They will come in auto via Mojave.

It is planned to spend several months in the high Sierras near Big Pine hunting big game and fishing. Reservations have already been made for a pack train and seven animals and several of the best guides in this section of the country have been engaged to steer them right.

Fish and Game Commissioner Chesser will also start the journey in the mountains for them and accompany the party until they get the swing of the thing.—Owens Valley Herald.

"In choosing his men," said the Sabbath school superintendent, "Gideon did not select those who laid aside their arms and threw themselves down to drink; he took those who watched with one eye and drank with the other."—Herald and Presbyter.

ESCAPED FROM HOSPITAL.

Tom Brown, the spieler, who was taken to the county hospital Monday night, suffering from the effects of morphine poisoning, escaped from that institution Tuesday morning and is supposed to have taken the train for Goldfield.

BIG SALE STILL ON.

The big sale at Ryan and Stenson's is still on and is attracting unusual attention. And there is reason for this phase, as the bargains they are offerings are phenomenal, therefore irresistible. Do not fail to be on hand and take advantage of them before they are all gone.

BROKER VANISHES WHEN FRAUD FOUND

MEMBER OF LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE CHARGED WITH STEALING $1,000.

By Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Cal., August 16.—A warrant charging C. B. Miner, a young broker, and member of the Los Angeles stock exchange, with having obtained $4,000 by fraud, was sworn out today by James H. Blagge, also a broker. When an attempt was made to serve the warrant on Miner he could not be found.

Several banks were said to be among the number of persons and corporations that sustained losses. People living near his home say the broker and his young wife and child disappeared Sunday morning.

PERSONAL

W. B. Ligon, state auditor, passed through Tonopah yesterday en route to Goldfield.

J. B. Giffen and family of Manhattan, arrived in Tonopah yesterday and will leave this morning for a visit to California points.

Theodore Tobish, a well known mining man of Goldfield, is spending a few days in Tonopah.

J. E. Hall, a former well known resident of this section, but now of Reno, is a visitor in Tonopah.

W. T. Cuddy, is about the streets again after an illness which confined him to his home for a number of days.

R. S. Scheney, who has been in the employ of Piercy's drug store for some time past, leaves this morning for Reno. He will be accompanied by his wife.

A. M. Murphy, of the White Mountain Water company, will leave this morning for Denver, and other eastern points. Provided, however, that the deal he got last night, on the occasion of his initiation into the Elks, will permit him to do so.

Frank Ward of the Bonanza force, was one of those who entered the antlered herd at last night's meeting of the Elks. If he fails to show up for work this morning the reason can well be suspected.

Gunner—Let us wait and hear Harker tell his funny story. Some one is bound to set up the cigars. Guyer—Oh, in that case Harker will set up the cigars to get us to listen to the story.—Chicago Daily News.

TO THE VOTERS

And to All Candidates for Democratic Nomination on the State Ticket.

I have engaged the Miners' Exchange hall for Thursday night, the 18th, and at that time will open my campaign for the democratic nomination for United States senator.

It is my earnest desire that all candidates for nominations for state offices on the democratic ticket come upon the platform and address the voters, whether you favor me or not. No one who participates will be construed as favoring me.

Yours sincerely,
KEY PITTMAN.
